

CYC POLICY

ACCIDENT INSURANCE Campers are covered by a limited accident policy while at camp. This does not cover any pre-existing illness or illness incurred while here. It is strictly an accident policy. This is a secondary policy; it will pay only after your insurance has been filed.

ADMISSION POLICY CYC is open to all who are willing to maintain the camp's Christian standard. We do not discriminate against any person regardless of race, color, or national origin.

TELEPHONE CALLS The Camp phone # is 910-891-4236. A seasonal phone is installed on the camp site and is heavily used. In the event of an emergency, campers will be allowed (with a staff member present) to use the phone to call home. Parents needing to contact their camper may call and leave a message with a staff member and we will have the camper return the call at a convenient time. CELL PHONES CYC prefers that parents not leave a cell phone with the camper. However, if you do, the following policy applies. Cell phones are for camper/parent communication only and may be used with permission, under the supervision of a staff member if a need arises. At all other times the phones should be turned off and put away. Parents should call the camp phone to contact their camper and not the camper's cell phone. Campers are not to use their phones to communicate with other campers or any person off campus except their parents unless approved by and supervised by a staff member. CYC is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged phones.

TUITION, DISCOUNTS, REFUNDS • The total remaining balance of your tuition is due at registration on the day the retreat begins. For accurate record keeping, an application must be on file for every camper. A refund of any unused portion of your tuition, less registration fee, will be given in the event a camper has to leave camp because of an injury or a personal emergency which, in the opinion of the director, is beyond the camper's or parent's control. No refund will be given when a camper leaves camp because of homesickness, discipline, family vacation, etc. No discount will be given for those arriving late.

VISITORS • CYC maintains a very active schedule. Therefore, visitors are discouraged. When a visitor does come on campus, he/she must check in with a camp manager to receive permission to be on campus. All visitors must obey the camp rules and leave before lights out. A $5.00 donation for each visitor meal would be appreciated. Note: Food must not be brought on campus by visitors.

DO NOT BRING • Radios, ipods, MP3s, video games (or other electronic devices), matches, lighters, any form of tobacco, weapons, alcohol, drugs or medications (except as noted on application), or questionable reading material. (CYC is not responsible for lost, damaged, or stolen items.)

WHAT TO BRING • Bed linens, pillow, blanket, bath linens, personal hygiene items, pajamas, casual clothing (see dress code), Bible, flashlight, ball glove, umbrella (Laundry service is not available.) THERE IS NO NEED TO BRING SPENDING MONEY.

ARRIVAL/DEPARTURE • Registration begins at 5:30 on Friday. Camp closes at 12:00 on Sunday. Please be sure someone is there to pick up your camper on time. Lunch will not be served.

CAMPER AGREEMENT

I understand that this is a church related camp and that certain standards of conduct will be required of the camper. If accepted, I agree to abide by the camp rules. I agree to demonstrate respect for the camp staff at all times. I understand that if I fail to keep my agreement, I may be asked to leave camp. I give permission to use pictures in which I may appear in camp brochures, flyers or other promotional literature both electronic or published and used by the camp.

PARENT/GUARDIAN AGREEMENT

As parent/guardian, I have read the Camp Policies and Guidelines and have reviewed them with my child. I accept them and expect my child to abide by them. I will be responsible for any and all property damaged by my child while he/she is at camp. I also understand the CE Dept. provides secondary insurance coverage and will not be liable for any expenses beyond that which is covered by insurance. In case of a simple accident or illness, the camp director may make necessary arrangements. If the accident or illness is serious, I request the camp director to contact me immediately and grant permission for the licensed physician and medical facility selected by the director to take all necessary steps to insure my child's health. I give permission to use pictures of my child (as a camper) which may appear in camp brochures, flyers, or other promotional literature, both electronic or published and used by the camp.

CYC GUIDELINES

All guidelines are necessary to assure a proper flow within this Christian community. Any exception to these guidelines or additional guidelines deemed necessary becomes effective upon announcement by the camp Director. The general position of the administration is that we expect everyone to live up to the Christian standard of behavior. Specific guidelines are as follows:

CAMP AREA ● Camp boundaries will be further explained in the orientation session. Once a camper arrives on campus, he/she is not permitted to leave without the Director's permission. If vehicles are driven to the camp, they must be parked in the designated area, locked and not returned to until the end of the retreat.

SOCIAL CONTACT ● CYC is a great place to meet new friends. However, we request that there be no physical contact between members of the opposite sex. Fighting and bullying is not acceptable behavior at CYC.

MEALS ● Remember table etiquette at all times. When you finish your meal clean your area and put all trash in the proper place. No food is to be taken out of the dining hall. Everyone is required to attend all meals.

DRESS CODE ● The camper should note that this is church camp and the dress code is conservative. We permit pants and/or knee length shorts for boys and girls. Clothing above the knee will not be permitted. We do not permit going without shirts, wearing halters, tank tops or garments that leave the midriff or cleavage exposed, including see through garments. Clothing with offensive imprints is not allowed. Shoes must be worn at all times. At no time should you be outside your cabin without clothes in keeping with this policy.

EVERYONE MUST (a) Respect and cooperate with all staff members and campers. (b) Participate in the camp schedule giving particular attention to being on time for each activity. A daily schedule will be furnished upon registration. (c) Do your fair share in keeping the grounds, rooms, and equipment clean, in place, and workable at all times.
